Copy of the Publisher order attached. For Freelancer and Feelance Agencies required!

Declaration for Media and Journalist:

§ 1 I am aware of the risks of danger posed by motorsport events and promise to abide by the rules and instructions of the organizers, event preparation teams, police and officials (in written, verbal and visual form). I vow to abide by these instructions. I understand it is not allowed to freely enter specified forbidden areas and safety zones.

§ 2 I will accept the responsibility for my own personal safety, especially in the case where genuine mistakes may be tolerated by the organizer. I understand it is explicitly declared that the track and track boundaries are forbidden to all in general, unless otherwise stated by an authorized official.

§ 3 I accept individuals will only be granted access to private/certain areas if they fall into the following categories:

- SportPlus, their directors, presidents, members, employees and voluntary employees
- the organizer, their commissaries and assistants,
- the owner of the arena or track and their commissaries,
- the riders, fellow passenger, vehicle owner, applicant and their assistants, insofar as belongs to a race, a show or a training,
- Authorities or other people and institutions, which are connected to the organizers of the event, for damage to myself, tangibles, ability as long of my abidance at the event as far as damage and casualty of the named persons above is not intentionally or abrasive careless

§ 4 I know that infraction against § 1 will lead to the outright denial/dismissal of my press card or similar forms of i.d./employment.

§ 5 The areas accessible for media members, journalists and photographers are clearly and purposefully allocated.

§ 6 I am aware that all shows, events and contests under the NIGHT of the JUMPs label require written approval/permission from the owners of the rights for the use of TV-, Video and photo cameras. Deliberate use of all cameras (including video cameras) and/or forbidden electronic equipment will inevitably lead to the outright denial of the press card or anything equal. We reserve the rights to claim further permission from the owner of the TV rights/licence if necessary.

Note for TV-Stations / -Production Companies:

The authorized signature holder/allocated representatives enforce that, on the night of the event, the production/recording of video footage requires valid permission from the NIGHT of the JUMPs officials. Permission will be automatically granted ONLY to the mentioned/credited and licensed broadcasting companies and individuals otherwise involved in the official trailer/teaser interlinked with the broadcasting.

Duplication/sharing of any video footage with broadcasters / TV stations (unless permission is officially stated) for unauthorized public/private use may lead to prosecution, If required, proof of explicit permission must be valid and accessible. It is crucial that those seeking consent contact the company/individual specified below:

SportPlus Marketing GmbH
Mr. Marko Manthey
Moriz-Seeler-Str. 5 - 12489 Berlin - Germany
T: +49 (0)30 63 31 474 - 0
F: +49 (0)30 63 31 474 - 29
Mail: press@notj.de

The use of video footage for trailers, teasers, commercials or any other category of visual promotional media, which does not belong to or has not be licensed/approved by the above mentioned broadcaster is strictly forbidden.

The rights to use mentioned forms of video footage for broadcast, at a maximum length of 5 minutes, is automatically allocated to authorized tv stations or production companies. In cases where the video footage may be longer than 5 minutes, approval/permission from the SportPlus, Rebel Media, or any other authorized companies involved is required.

Official licences are no longer valid 6 months after the start date, though it is possible to gain an extension through official enquiries. The receiver must commit to informing the SportPlus Marketing GmbH of a confirmed date(s) for broadcasts, including times, repeat broadcasts, lengths of the broadcasts and coverage (as well as any tapes or DVDs of the broadcast). Please send Beta SP or DVDs to the above mentioned address (SportPlus).
